

U.S. PREMIERE

Top Hole! is based on the legendary and much loved golfing stories of PG Wodehouse, the creator of such popular characters as Jeeves and Wooster, as well as the eccentric residents of Blandings Castle.

The audience will join "The Oldest Member" as he settles into his favourite chair and begins to tell the story of "The Coming of Gowf". However, as is so often the case in such circumstances, the old gentleman is soon rambling as he remembers the tale of George Mackintosh, not to mention Mitchell Holmes, and how could he not fail to talk about Wilmot Byng?

Slow players, incessant talkers, those for whom the rule book is the 14th club in the bag and many other universally recognizable golfing types people his reminiscences.

With the full permission of the Wodehouse Estate, internationally renowned performer Gerald Dickens has cleverly crafted a two-act script based on four of the funniest golfing tales written between 1922 and 1937,which is sure to delight golfers throughout the country.
