

Riverside Dickens Festival presents

The Historical Tea & Dance Society's
Victorian Dance Hall

ALL ARE WELCOME! NO PARTNER OR COSTUME NEEDED!

~ SATURDAY FEBRUARY 22 ~

10:30 am  Open waltzes & other dances

11:00 am–12:00 pm  Waltz Survival dance class

Not sure how to waltz? You've tried but haven't done very well? Just want to practice or get some tips on how to dance better? Join the Historical Tea and Dance Society dancers for this beginner-friendly workshop filled with tips for how to quickly get up to speed for waltzing at the ball.

12:00–1:00 pm  Open waltzes & other dances

1:00–3:00 pm  Ball Prep dance class

Caller Victor Lindsay teaches and reviews dances for this evening's Mr. Fezziwig's Ball.
You are not required to be attending the ball to attend this dance class. Come learn the basics of this fun and easy dance style with Victorian-era dances enjoyed during the life and times of Charles DIckens.

3:00–4:00 pm  Open waltzes & other dances

Hall closes in preparation for this evening's ball.

~ SUNDAY FEBRUARY 23 ~

10:30 am  Open waltzes & other dances

11:00 am–12:00 pm  The Ländler dance class

Join teachers Israel and Alvira Klien at this enjoyable class for the dance made famous by the movie, The Sound of Music.
This is a lovely easy to learn couples dance. No partner required, beginners welcome.

12:00–1:00 pm  Open waltzes & other dances

1:00–4:00 pm  Mr. Wilson's Dance Party

Join us as Mr. Wilson hosts the dance party filled with his favorite dances.
Enjoy a cup of tea, kick up your heels, and celebrate with Mr. Wilson!

Hall closes • Thank you Riverside Dickens Festival!

The Historical Tea & Dance Society  www.HistoricalTeaAndDance.org
Historical dance events and classes throughout the year. Based in Pasadena, CA. Follow us on FaceBook.